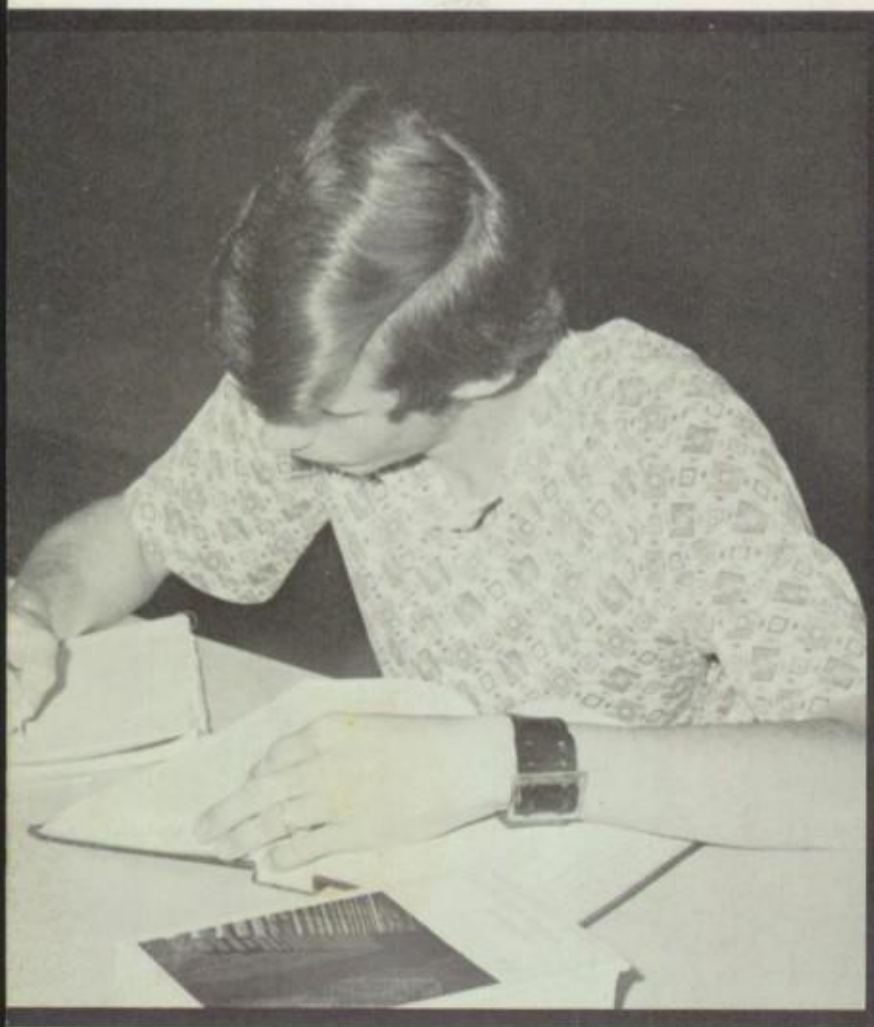
ARE YOU READY?

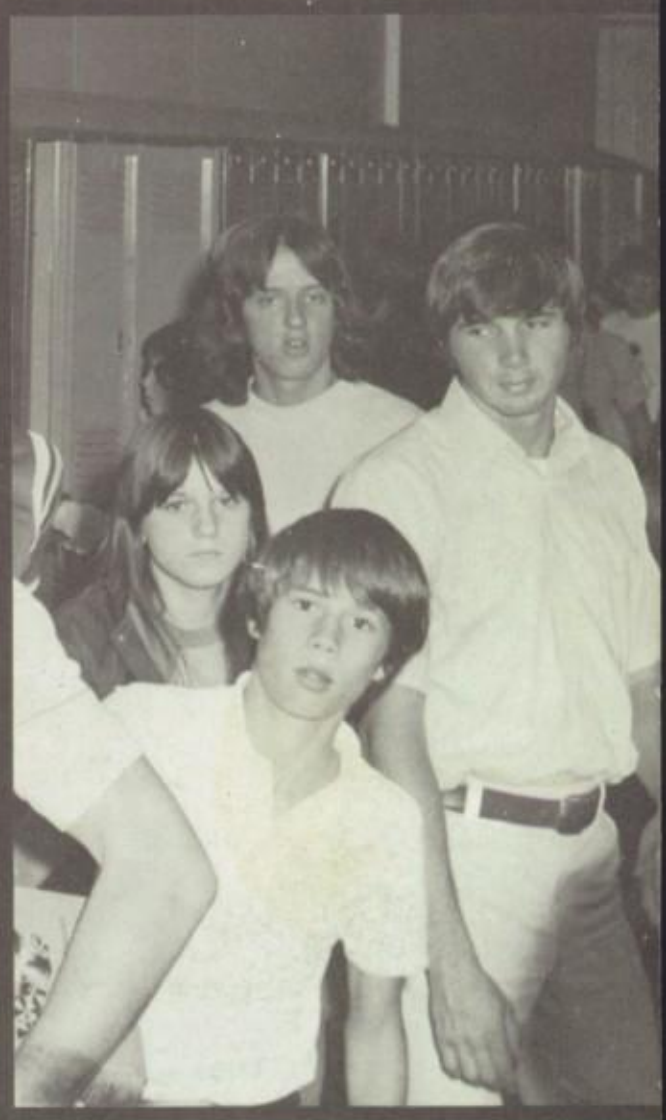


On August 27, school started again. Man, did it ever! Everyone had heard of the new man. What's his name? Dishwho? Well, soon they found out!!

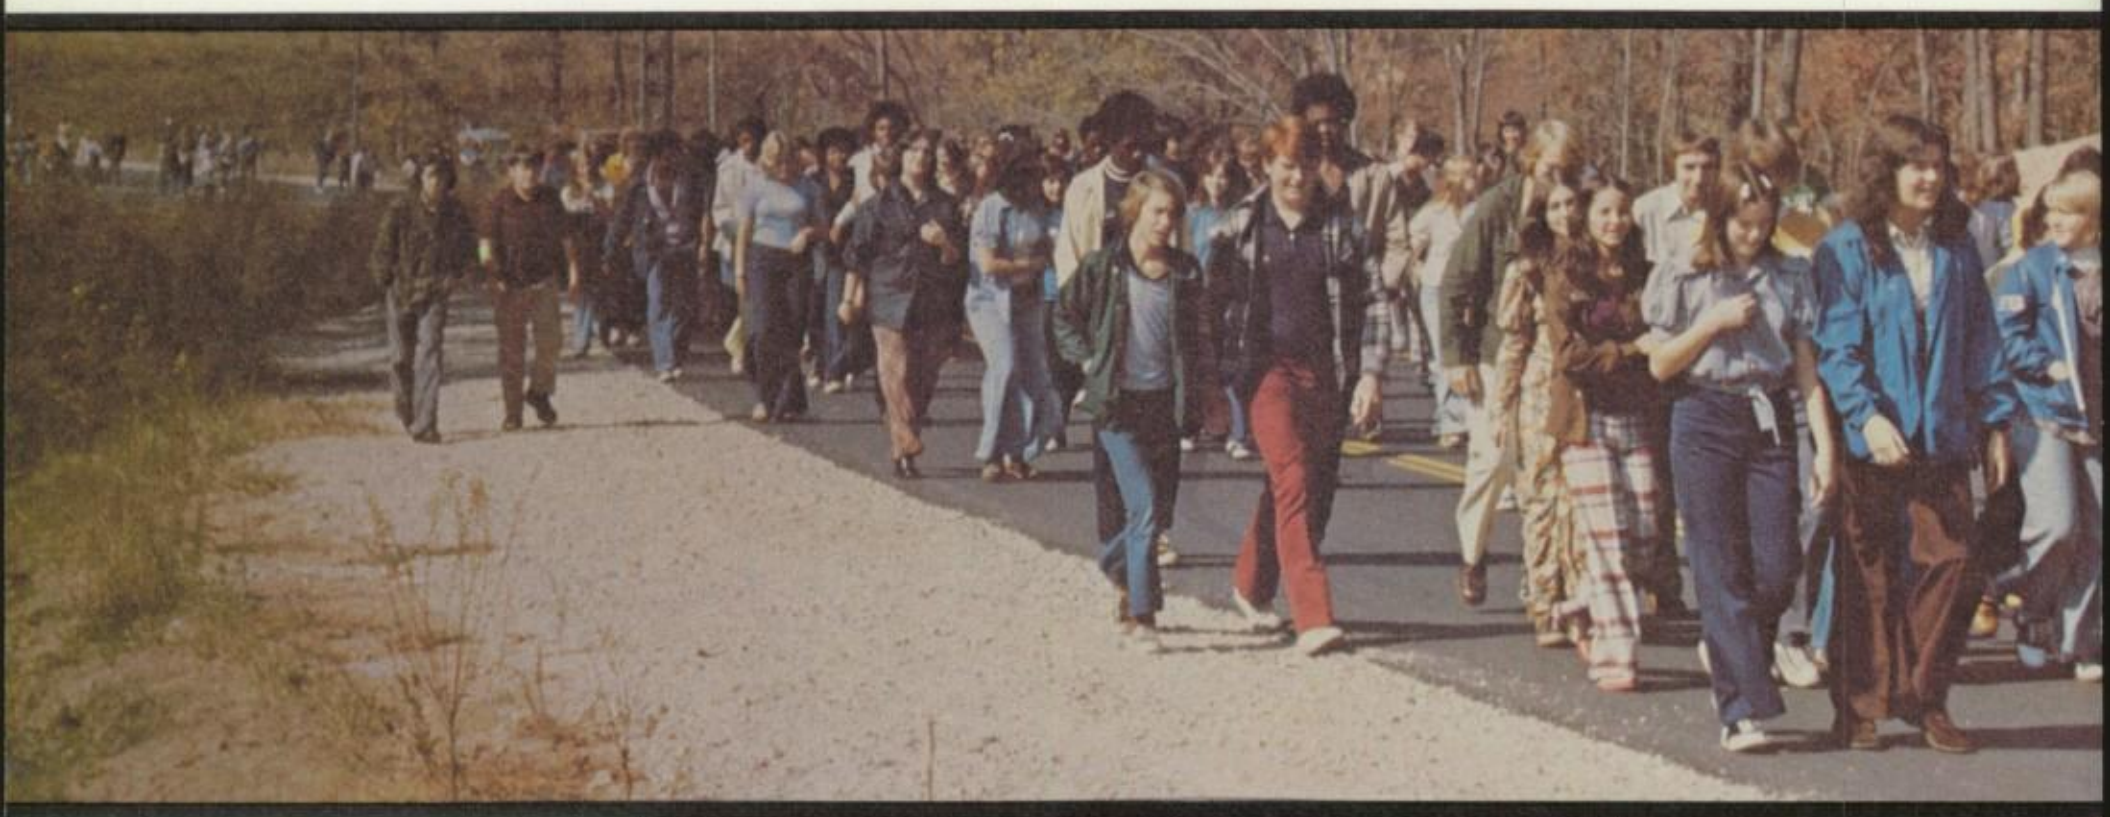
The MAN called a senior class meeting first thing!! As he talked, all his enthusiasm and spirit bubbled out and into the hearts of each individual. We could tell we not only had a new principal but a second chance.

We started using our privileges — Seniors got the court yard for a senior area and underclassmen and teachers also came alive and got involved . . . We got ready.

READY!

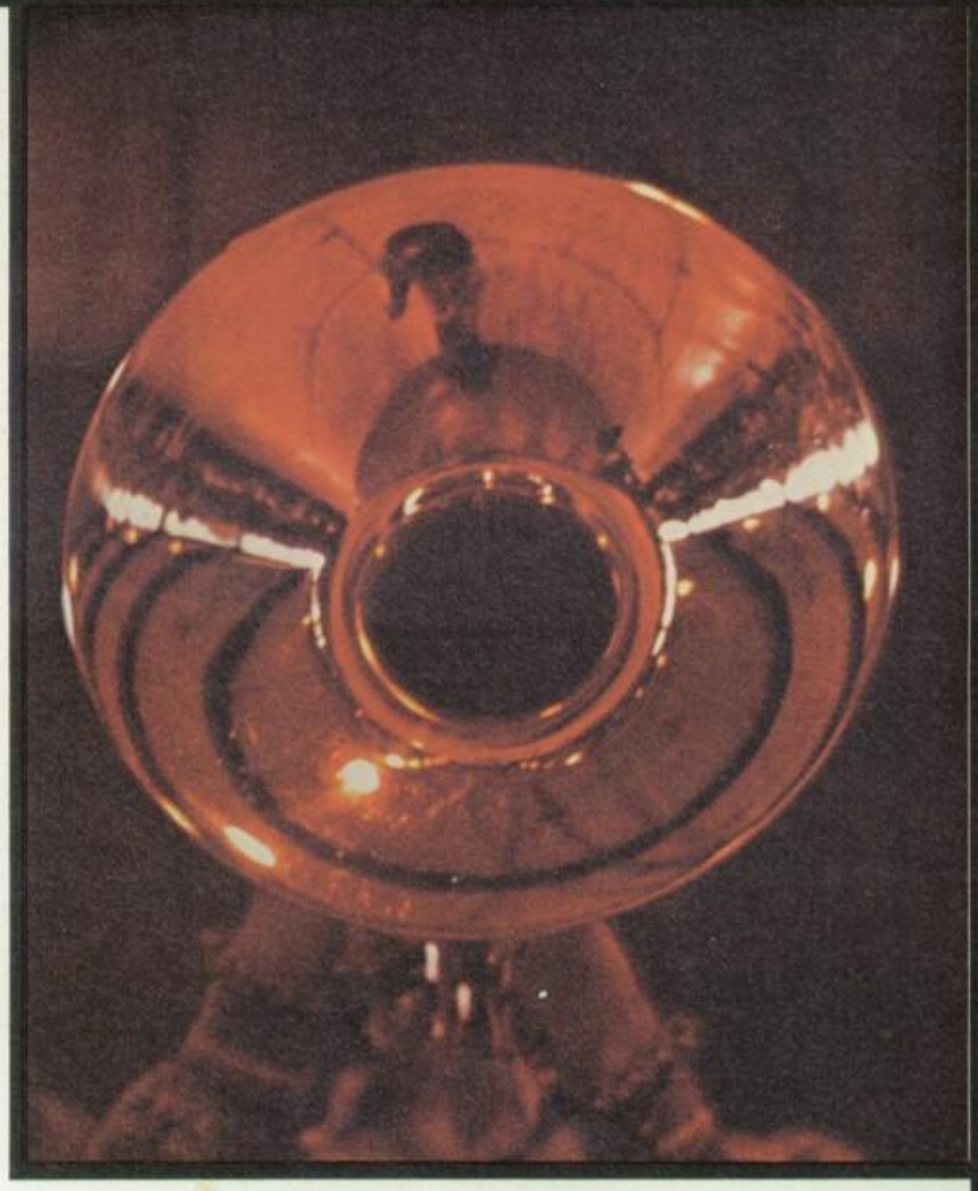


CRANK IT UP AND LET

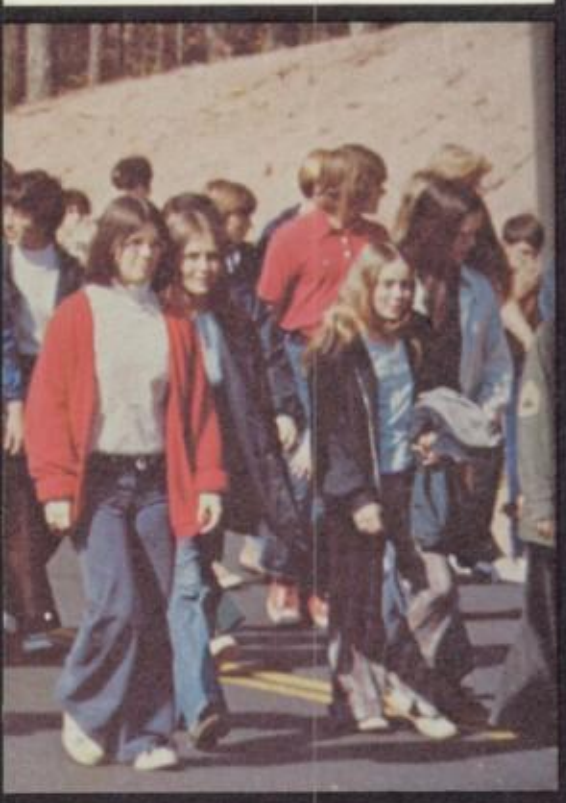


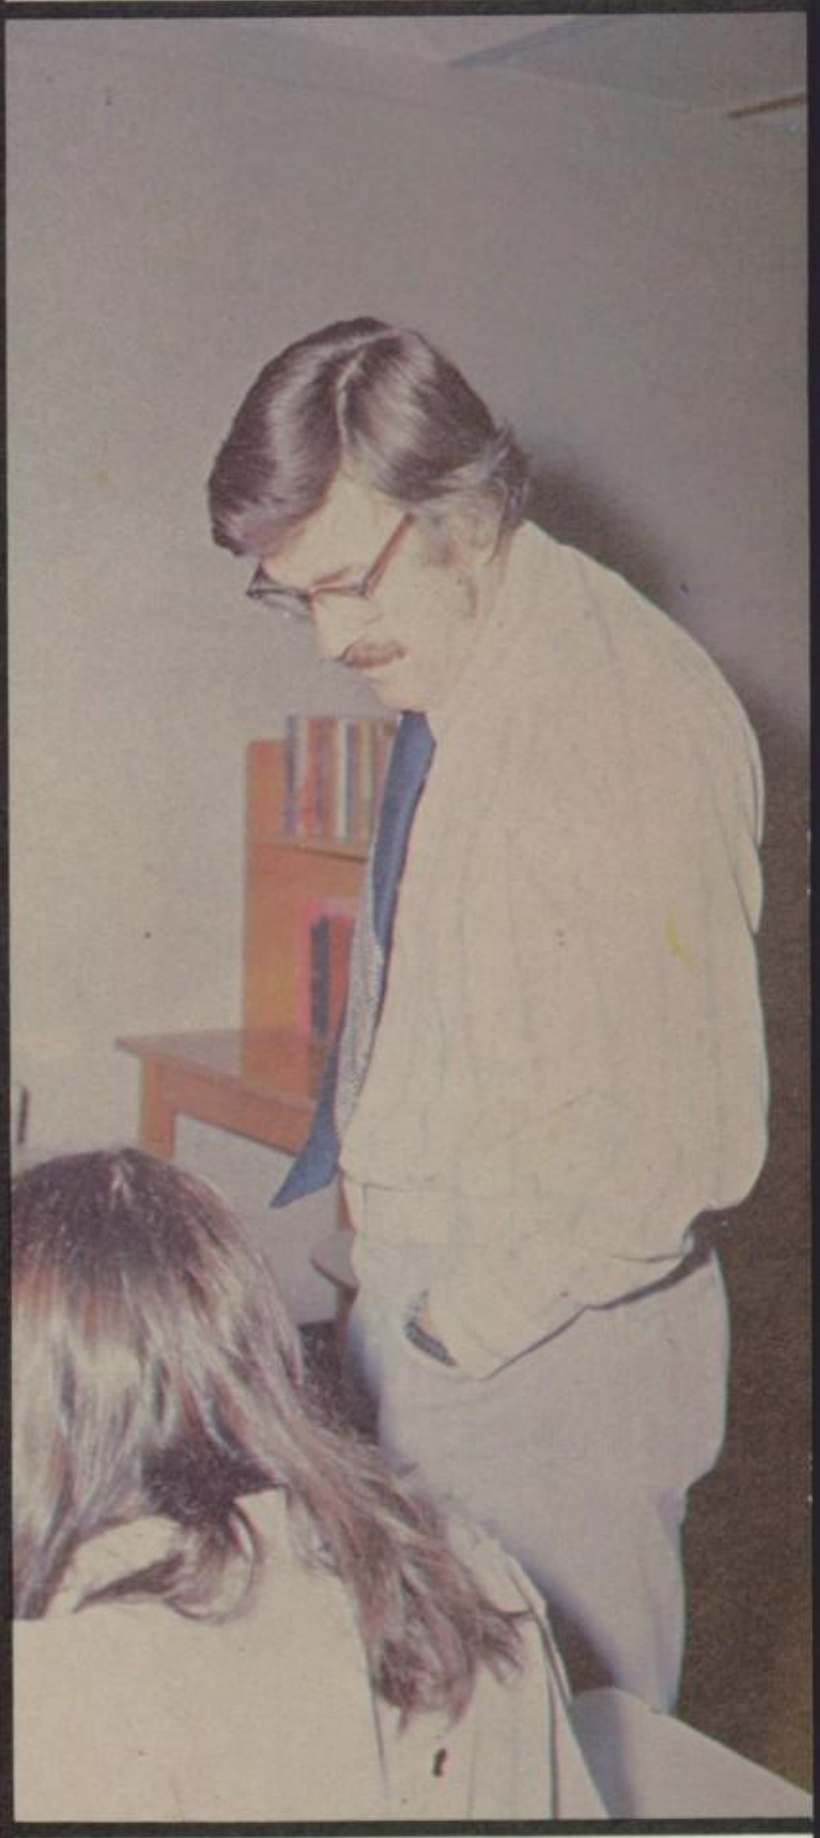
Once we got ready, it was as if the key was in the ignition. We merely had to turn the key and crank it up.

We turned the key by studying, participating, and just being at school. Something was different, one could feel it in the air. Every day was an exciting, new experience. Once the BIG BLUE MACHINE got started, it was unstoppable! Stop Johnson? Well, no!



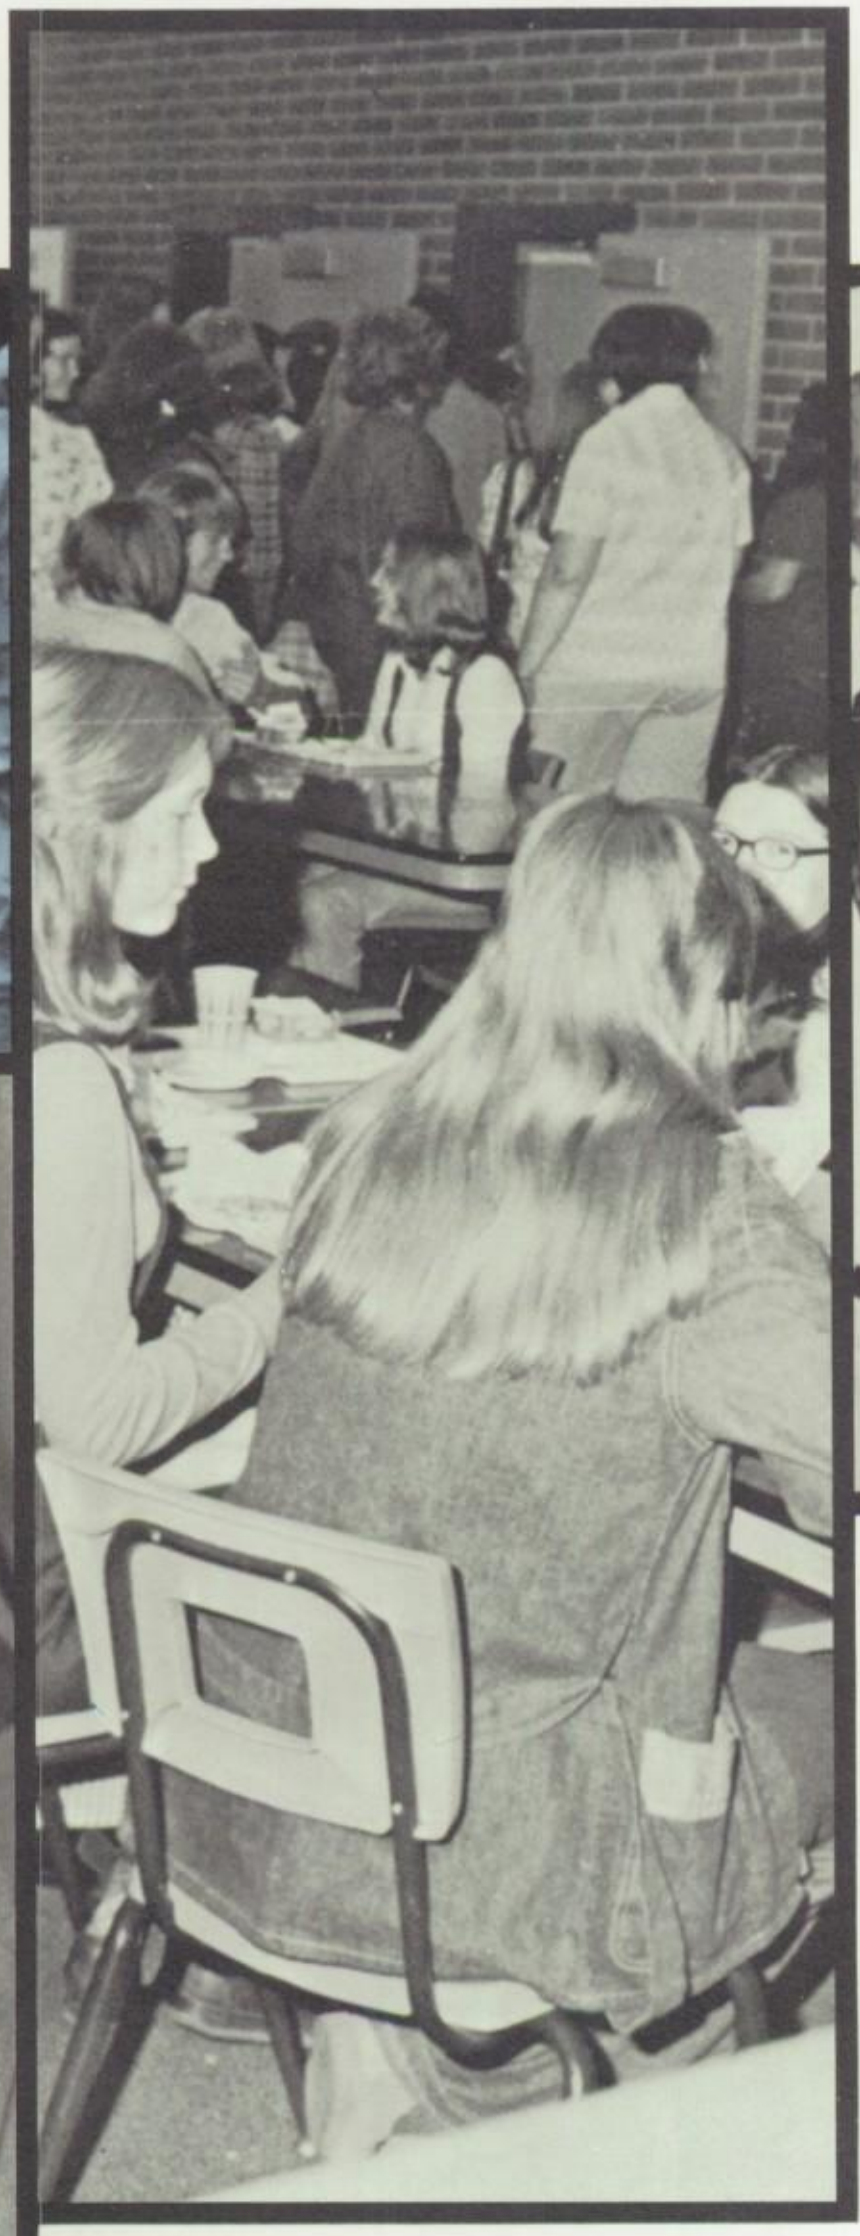
IT START

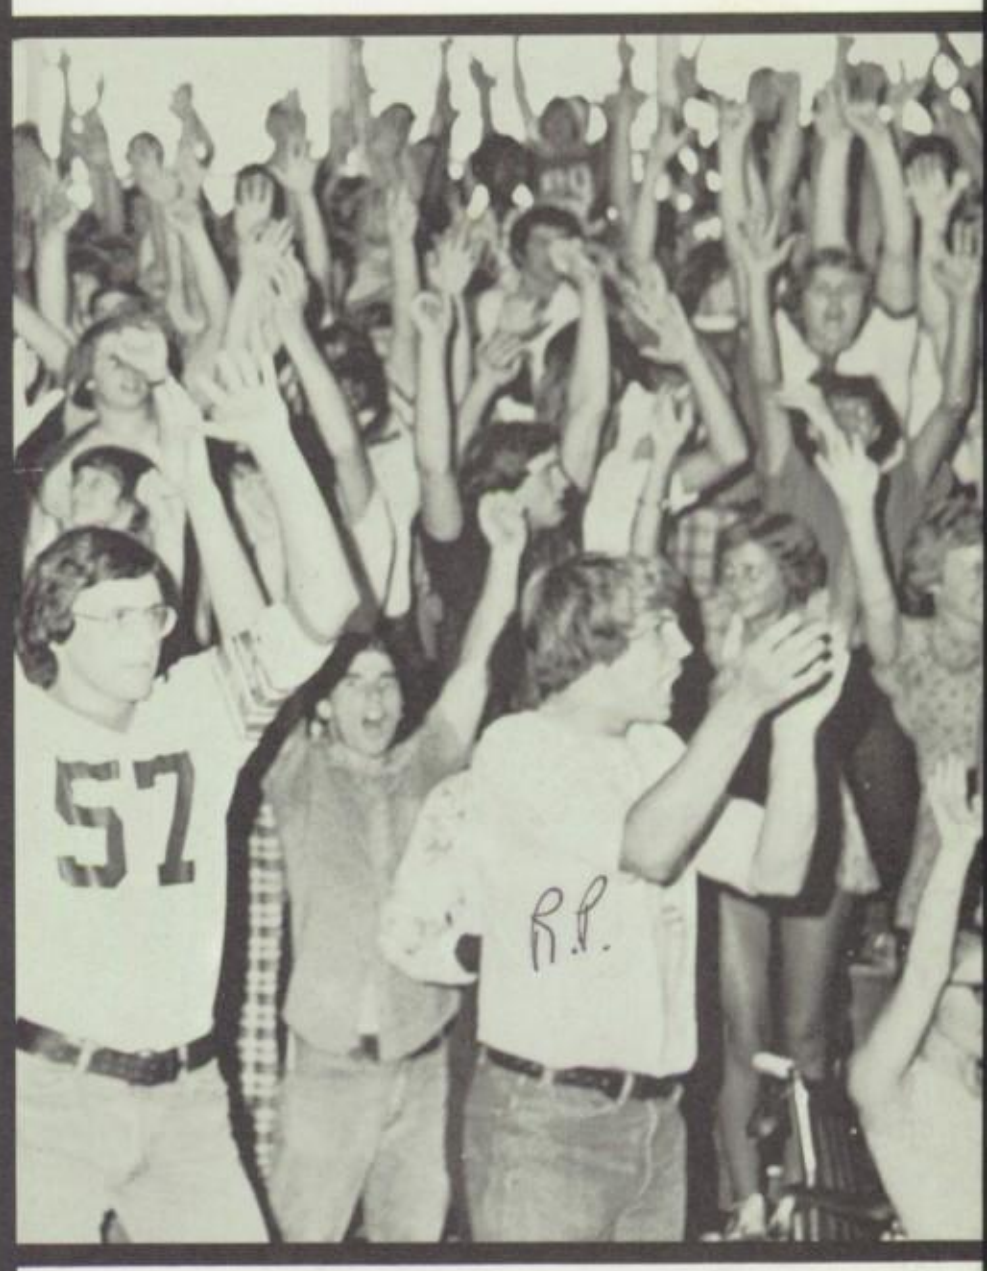




WE KNOW WE GOT

VICTORY IN OUR HEART



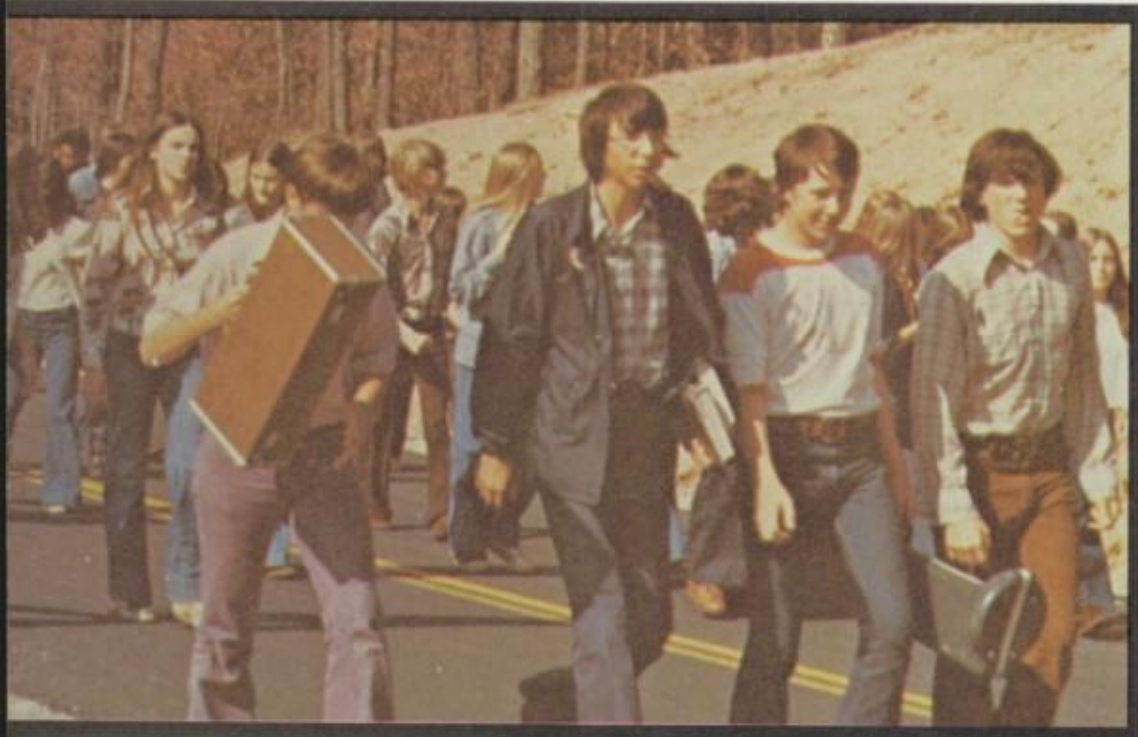


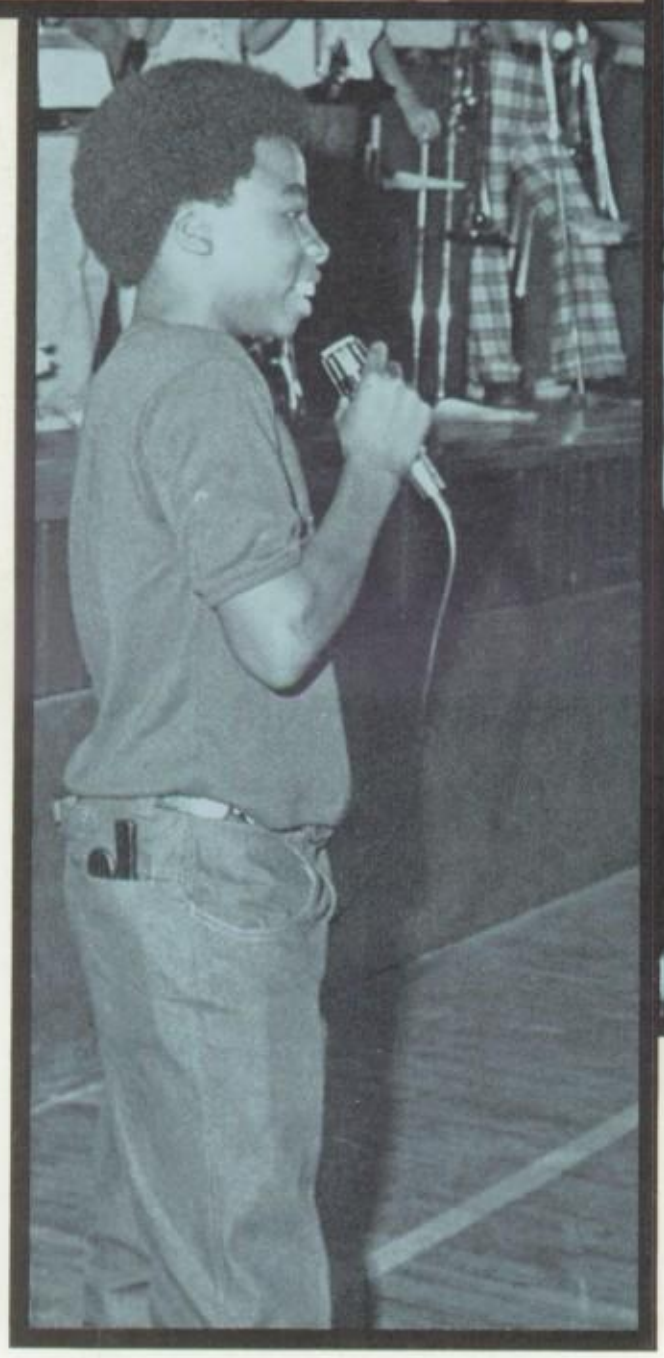
Suddenly it seemed everyone had the same desire. To be No. 1, to win and be the best. It seemed that all the hard work didn't seem so hard any more. How sweet that eventual victory was.

For the first time it was real not just a put on. We came to life at pep rallies but more important, every minute of each day was special. When someone was down, there was always someone to "get him up". It all came from our hearts.

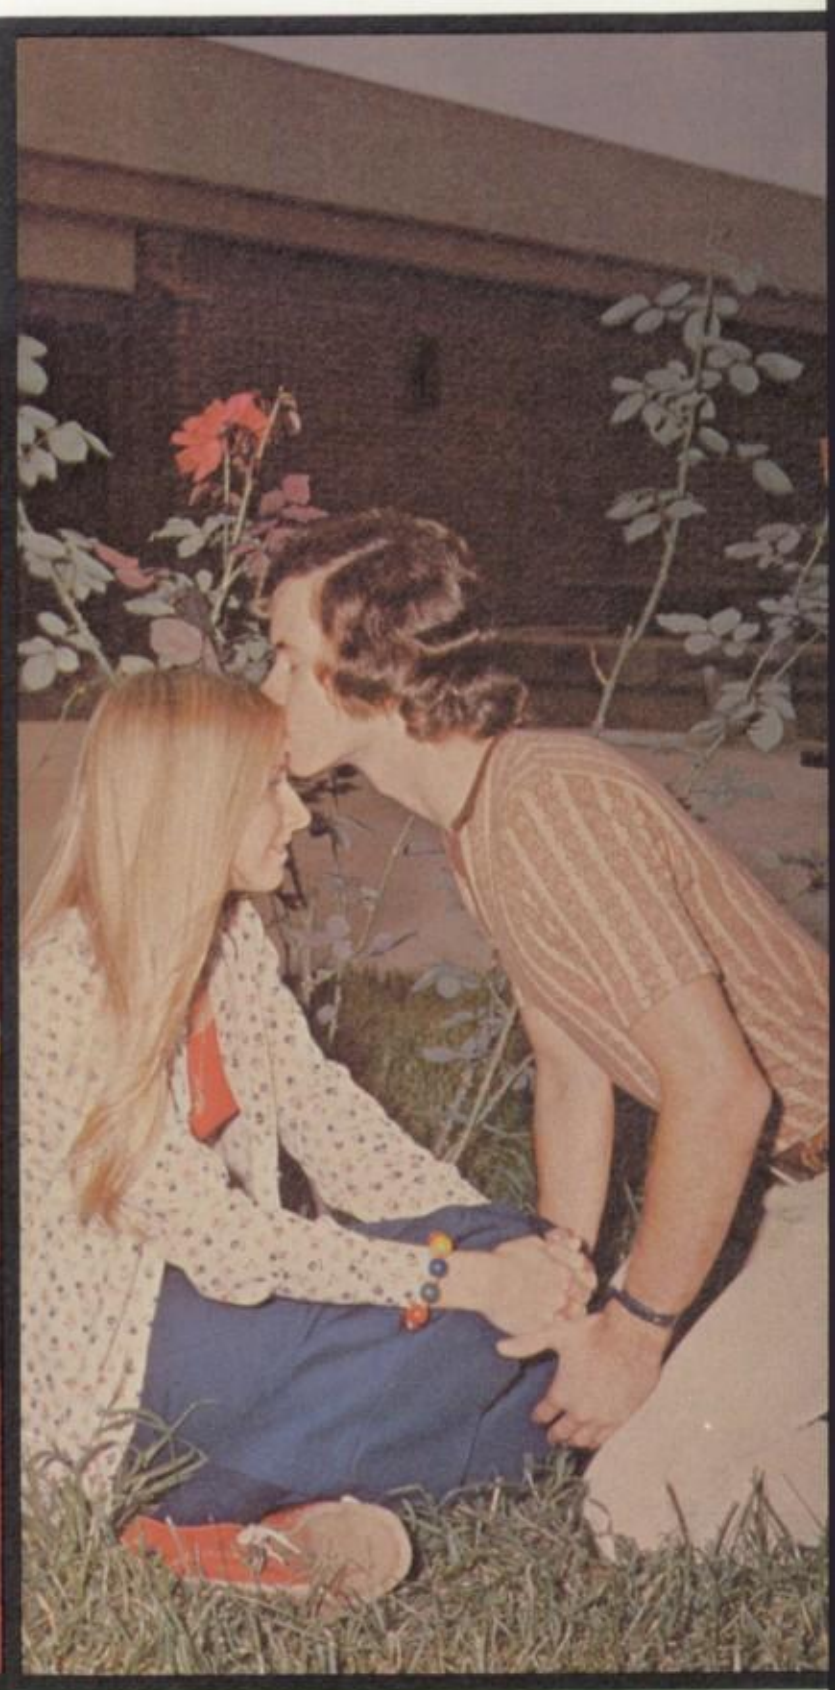
Victory . . . How sweet it is!

CAN'T YOU FEEL IT?





YOU CAN'T STEAL IT

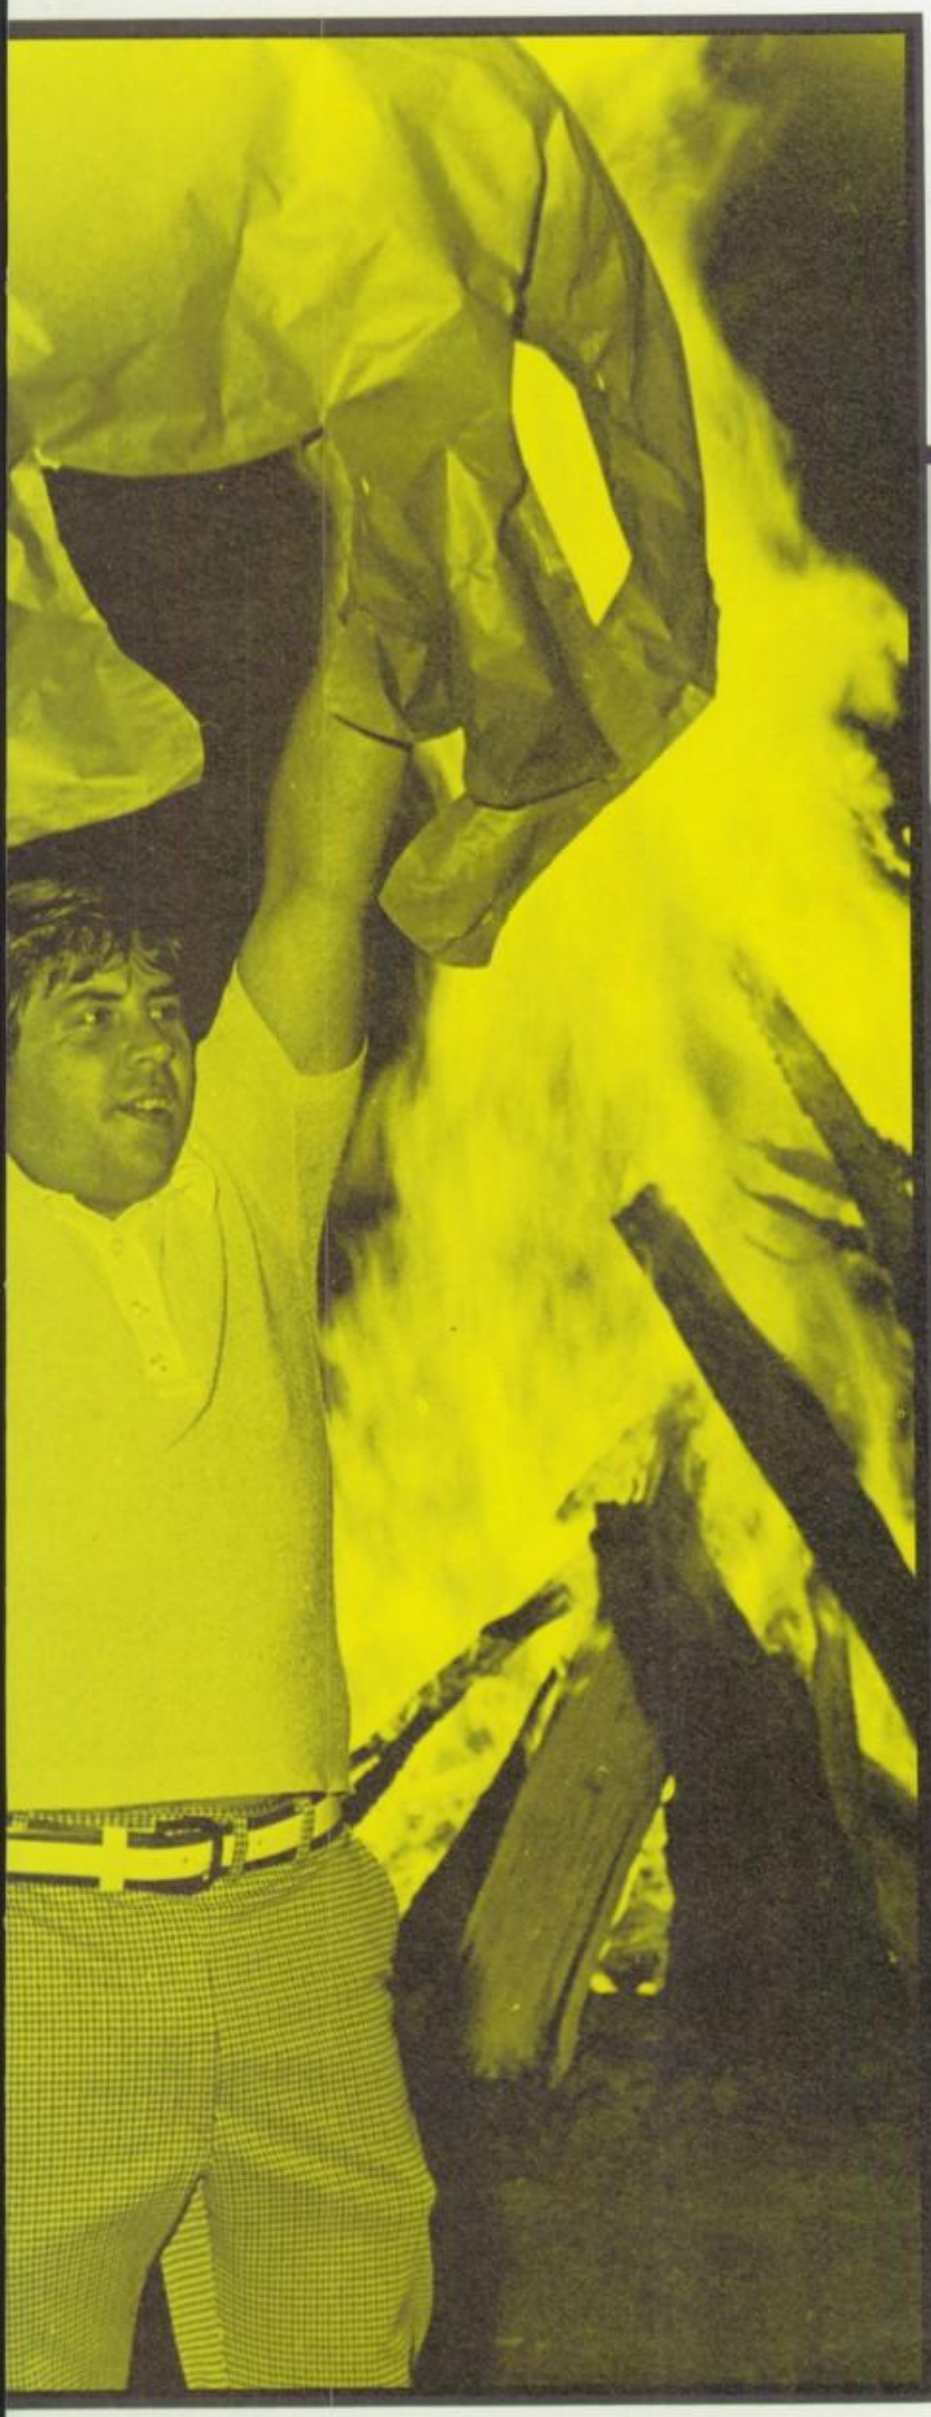


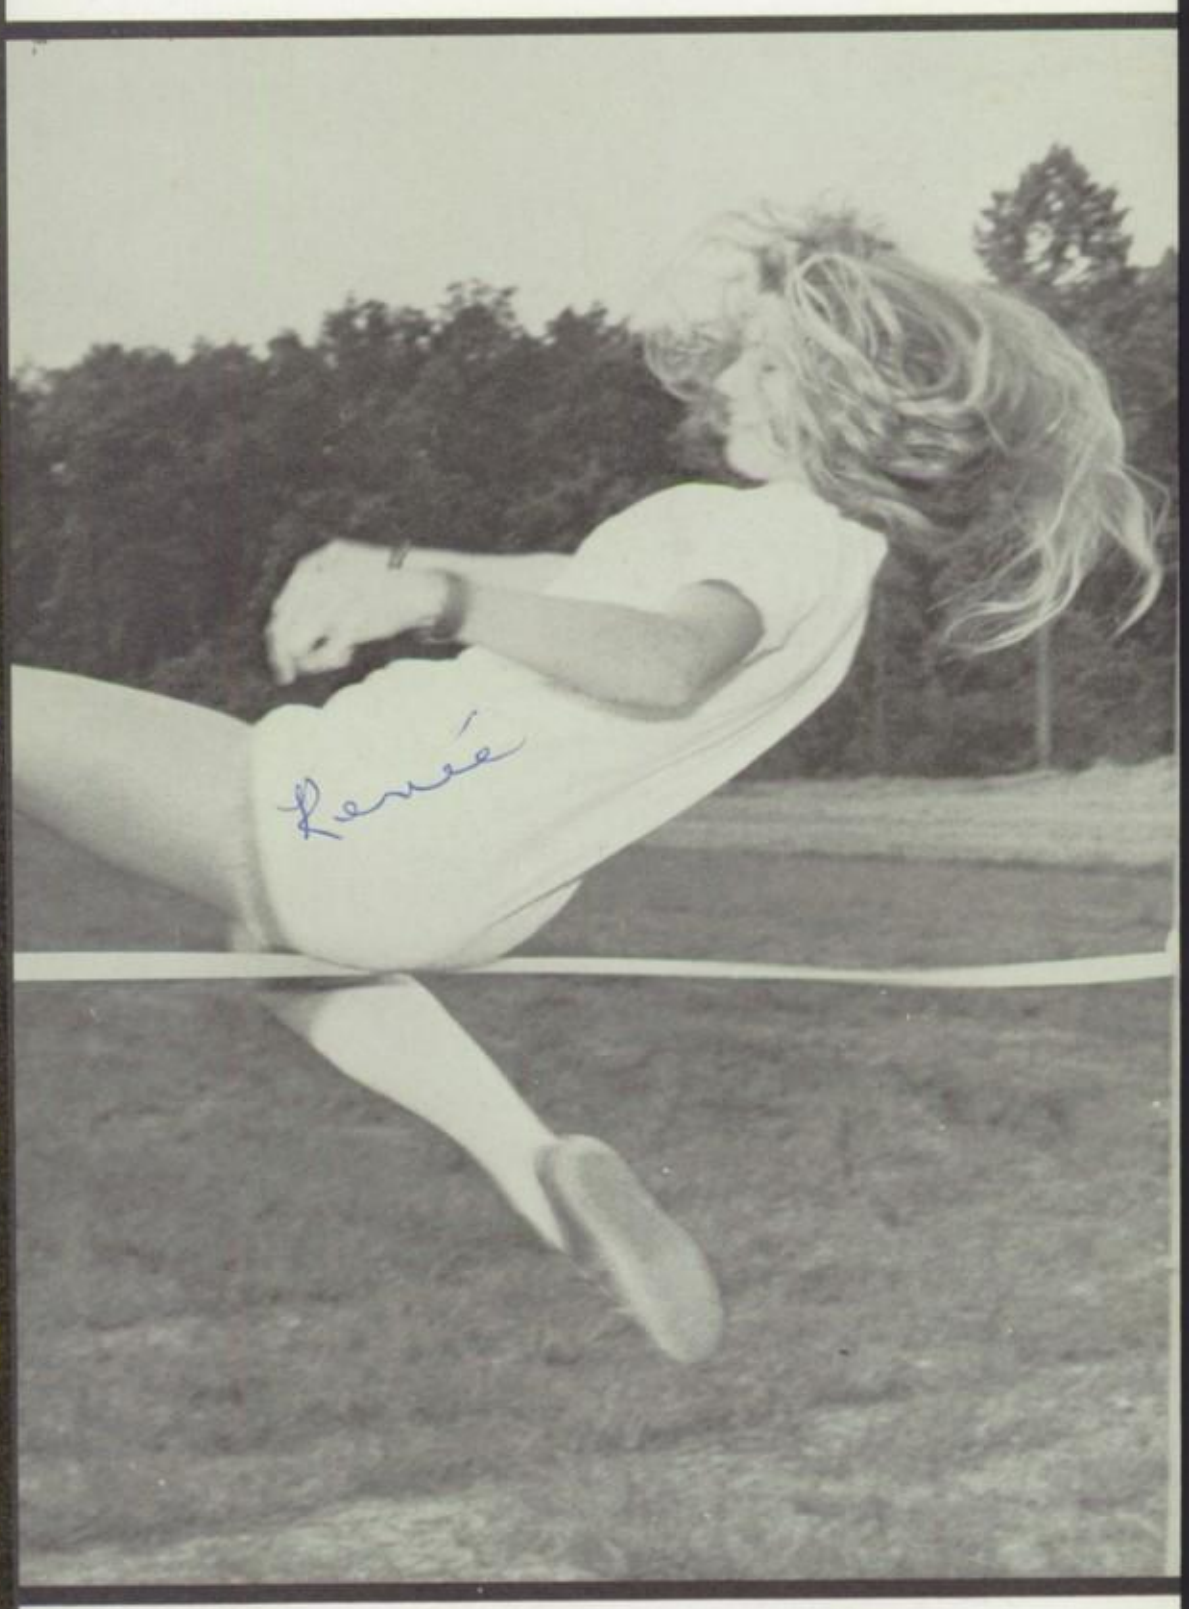
WE GOT IT!

SOULS ON FIRE

Like an uncontrollable fire, it spread until one thought his very soul was going to burn from inside. It was this flame inside, the spark, that kept us going through some tough defeats.

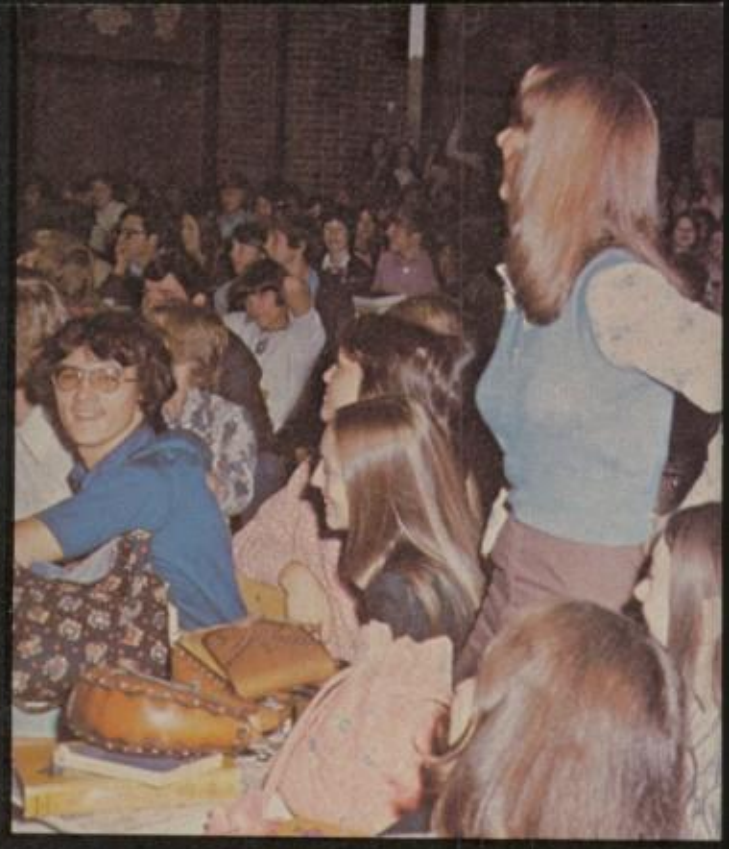
This spark might have been a pat on the back, a friendly smile, a kiss or even an A+ on a test. Whatever it was, we know we were Johnson Knights and we were the best!

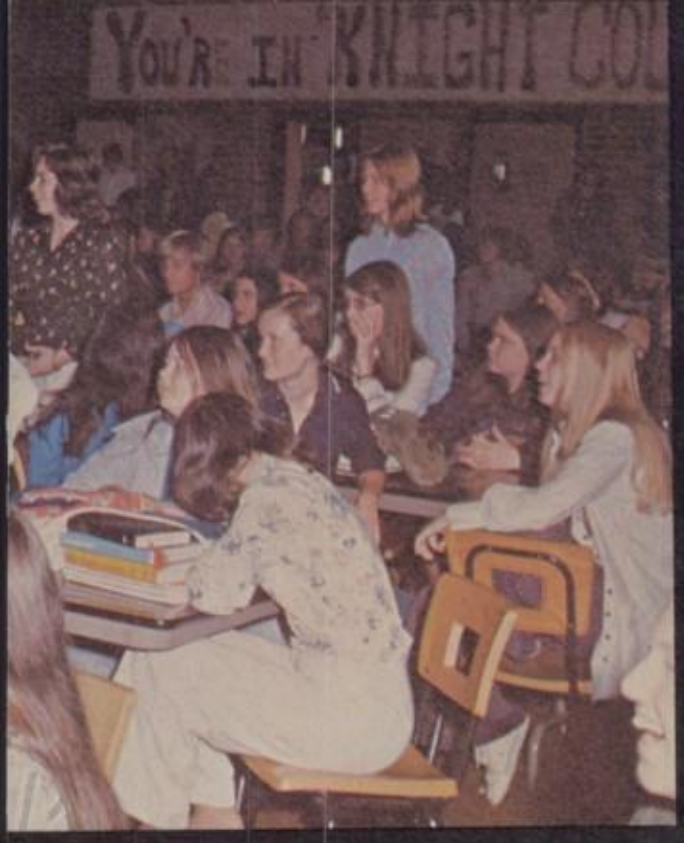




TAKES US HIGHER

WE GOT IT





WE CALL IT

THE MIGHTY

It grew and grew like an epidemic of the flu. It seemed everyone came up with a case of it. No longer were we ashamed of it and we proved it. Blue day on Fridays, working for three hours after school on various activities were just a few of the things we did. We developed a sense of pride.

If it was for JHS, it had to be the best! Not just anything would do. For the first time, we could feel it. We all knew it was there and everyone was a part of it — an important link in the chain — the chain of JHS. What was it? We call it the Mighty Knight Spirit.

KNIGHTS OF STRENGTH

Darla,
You really are a great tennis player for a girl. But you know that you and Dianne can't handle Mike and I. I don't believe you can handle me either. We will have to find out. I really haven't gotten to know you very well except for baseball and tennis. I would like to get to know you better.

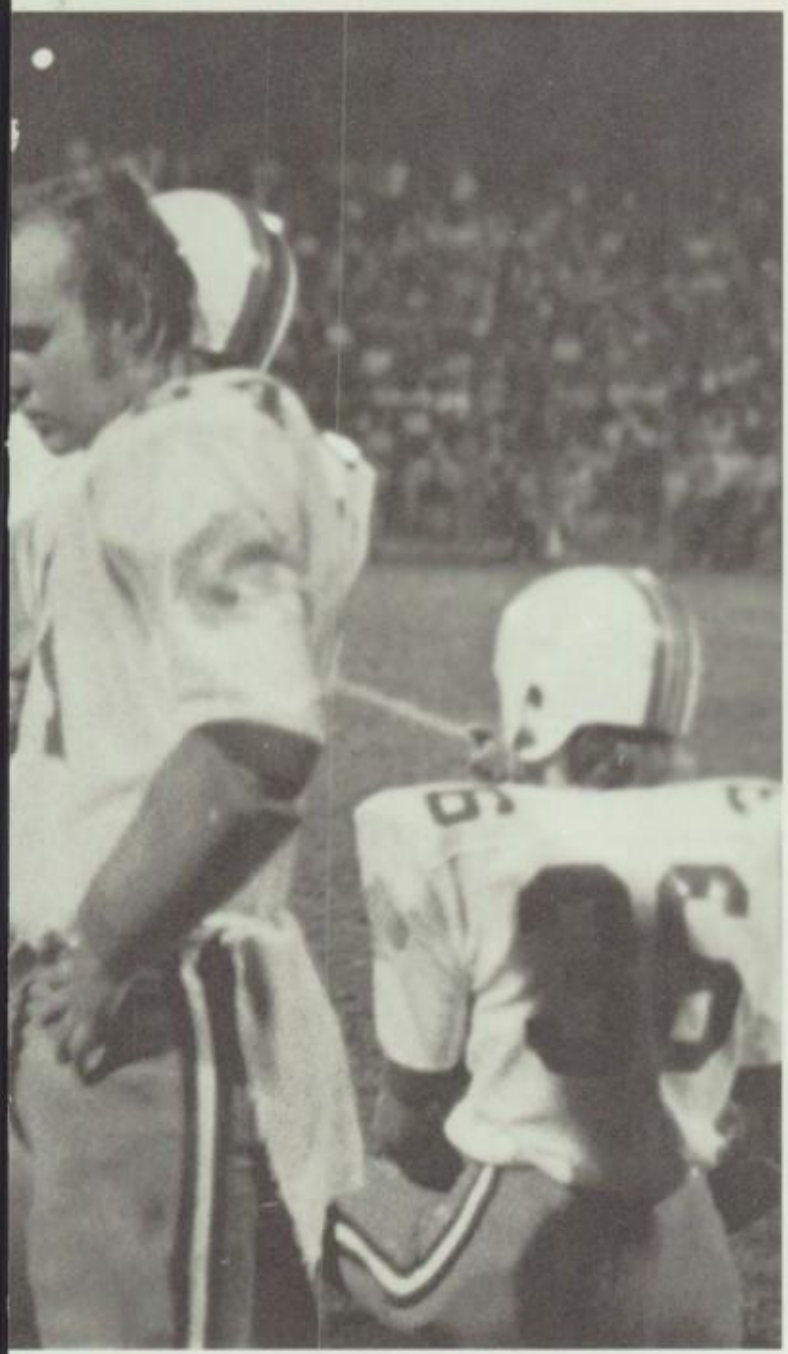
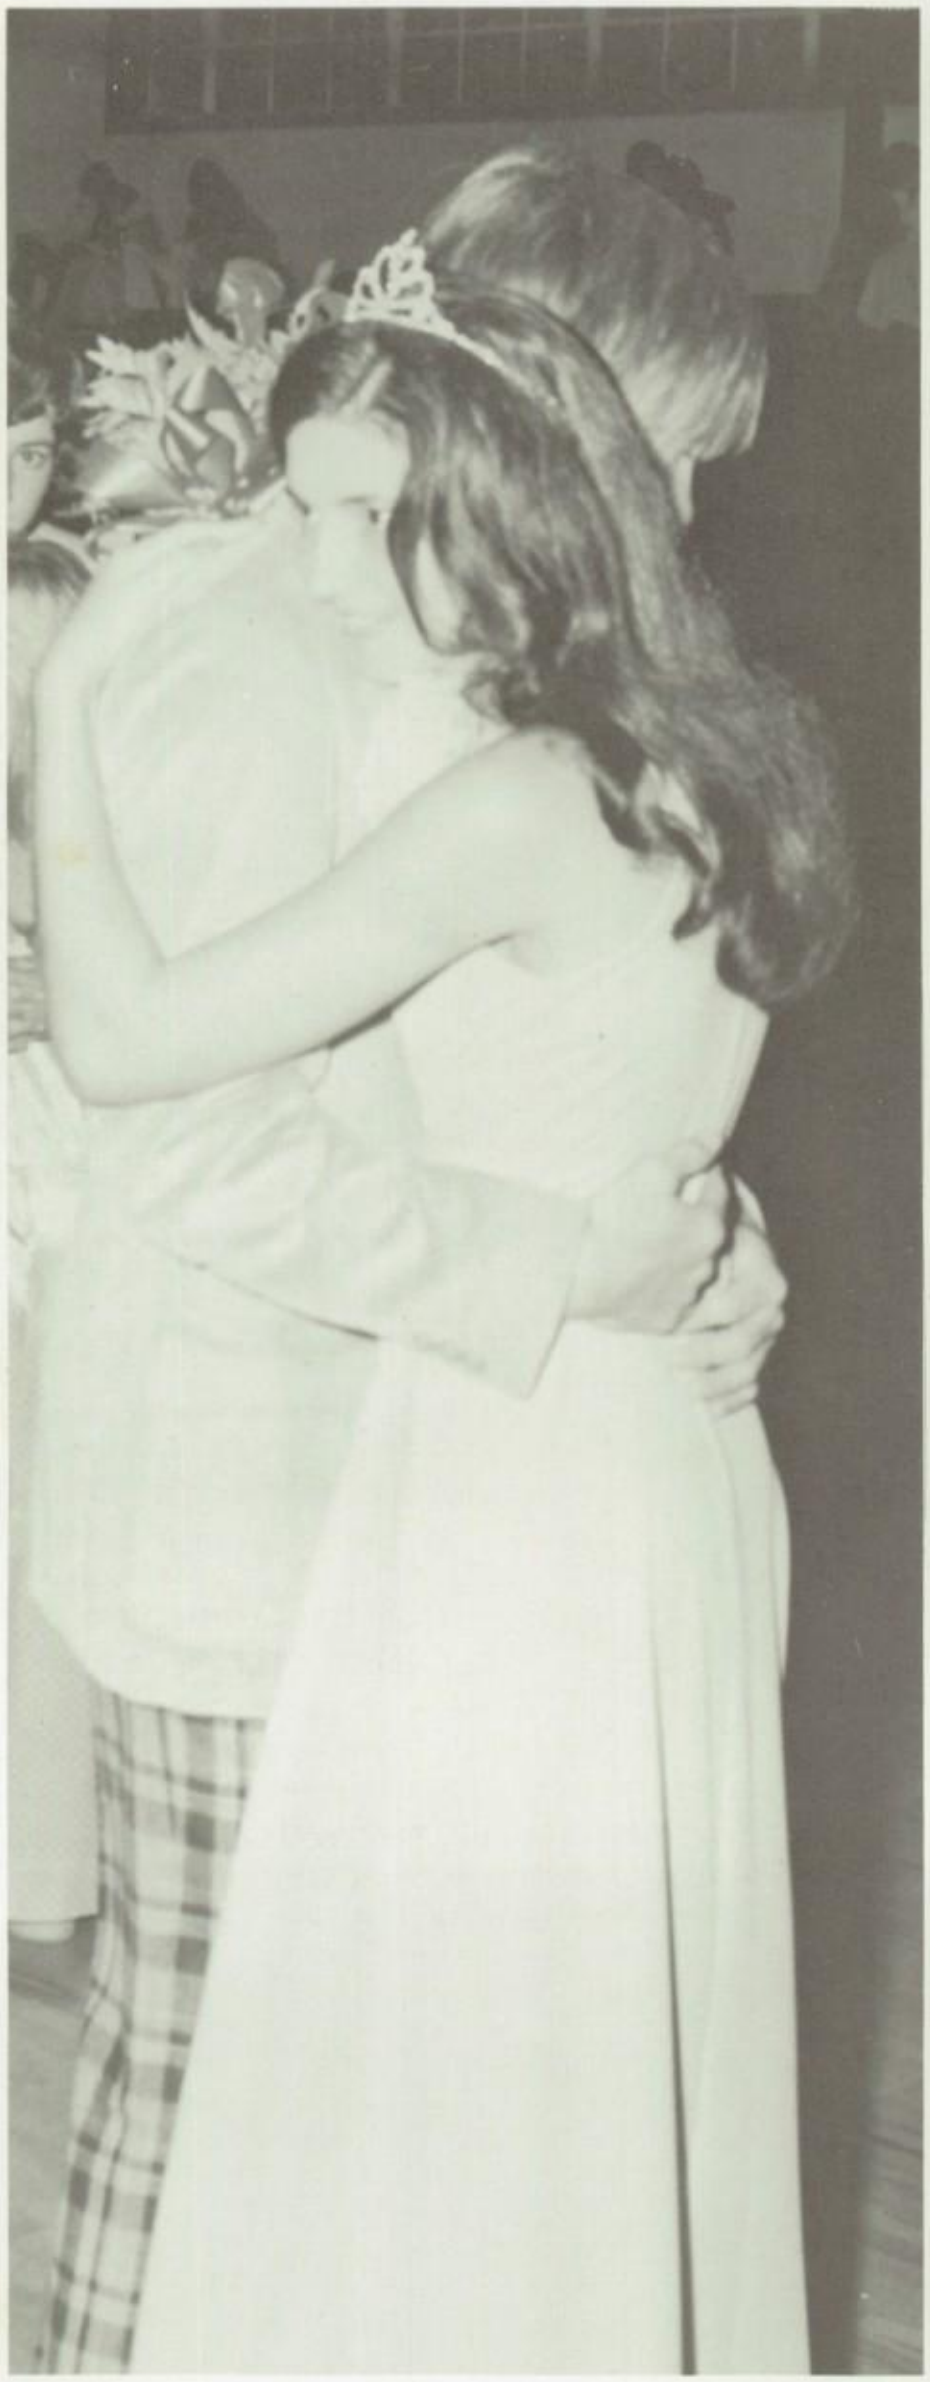
GET EXCITED — HOMECOMING 75

The hustle and bustle, excitement and anticipation of Homecoming combined this year to make Homecoming '75 one of the best ever. Although Johnson suffered a 7-6 defeat in game, they went down gallantly going for two and a win instead of settling for a tie.

At half-time Johnson held its "crowning of the queen" festivities. It was the same old thing; yet it was entirely different. It was more than just the new face that made it different, but what was it? Maybe it was the fact that the crowning was something every girl present secretly dreamed of happening to them. That being named queen meant that the majority of the student body thought you had the all-around vibrant, easy going personality that makes a queen — Tammy Carpenter.





THE ENCHANTMENT OF HOMECOMING

Johnson's dance honoring their Queen, Tammy Carpenter, took place at South Hall gym on October 18, 1974. This would be the last time the Seniors would be responsible for Homecoming. They had worked very hard to sponsor this dance. On the other hand, it was a first for the Freshmen, who had to bum a ride home from the dance. The Sophs were glad to have survived last year and the Juniors looked earnestly, capturing every detail. They knew they would get their chance soon. Enchanting, isn't it?

HOMECOMING COURT; (L-R) Margaret Sasser, Tammy Carpenter, Queen; Robin Turner, Amy Pass, Kay Reese.

This year the court consisted of Deborah Stephens, escorted by Michael Leverette; Sharon Randolph, escorted by Scott Randolph; Yvonne Leverette, escorted by Chester Willis; Marsha Turner, escorted by Edward Wright; Kiawanne Lipscomb, escorted by David Goss; Mandy Richardson, escorted by Roger Lee; and Tonnette Underwood, escorted by Nelson Lott.

From these were chosen: First Runnerup — Marsha Turner Second runnerup — Kiawanne Lipscomb; Third runnerup — Yvonne Leverette; and Miss Ebony — Deborah Stephens. She was crowned by last year's winner Nancy Osborne.

The entertainment was provided by: The Ebony Dancers. The Ebony Society is sponsored by Deborah Rucker.

How it flies when you're having a good time. We're bold, we're big, and we're glad we're alive — The Class of '75. JUNIORS—ON THEIR WAY—GO!

We're the Spirit of '76, only one more step to go but the best is yet to come — we're the first true graduating class of J.H.S. So when we're finally on the top we'll really be there. There's really a lot more that has to be accomplished but the way we're going now it will be! So Go Big Blue. Left to Right: Secretary — NANCY SORSDAHL; Vice President — CURT LANCE; President — DAVID STARGEL; Treasurer — MONTEY WALTERS.

SOPHOMORES LEARN ABOUT BEING KNIGHTS

I wish everyone would remember we're not Freshmen anymore. It's our time to start getting revenge. Watch out Freshmen. We're still a long way from the top but at least we're not hitting bottom. It's nice to know you're not the youngest. We're finally getting into the rut of things. A class that's going places. The Class of '77.

Yesterday
it's just a word and yet it holds so much meaning, for yesterday, you were here and today
you went home.

Yesterday
I remember laughing when you tripped and fell
You understood in that unconscious, perceptable way that friends have that I wasn't laughing at you, but at the sight of you sprawling on the floor like that . . . and you laughed too.

Yesterday
we laughed and we cried . . . we argued and we stood up for each other we talked and we listened . . . we gossiped and we griped . . .
and we lived.

Yesterday
the last time I saw you, you were going your way and I was going mine and we laughed over some parting remark that I can't remember now . . .
and then we parted, never realizing that it was for the last time.

Yesterday
it's gone now, so I'll have to try to go on without you, but I'll never forget you or the way you lived . . .
and the yesterdays we had.

I'll see you when it's my turn to come home.

Wait for me and we'll talk about yesterday.

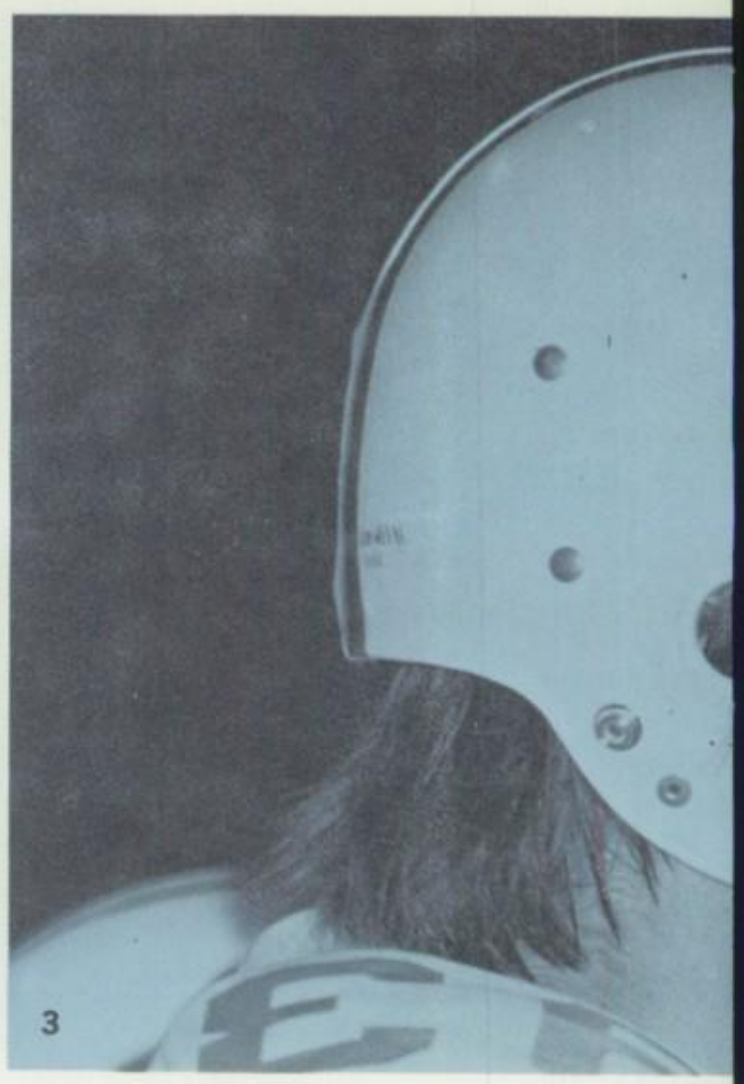
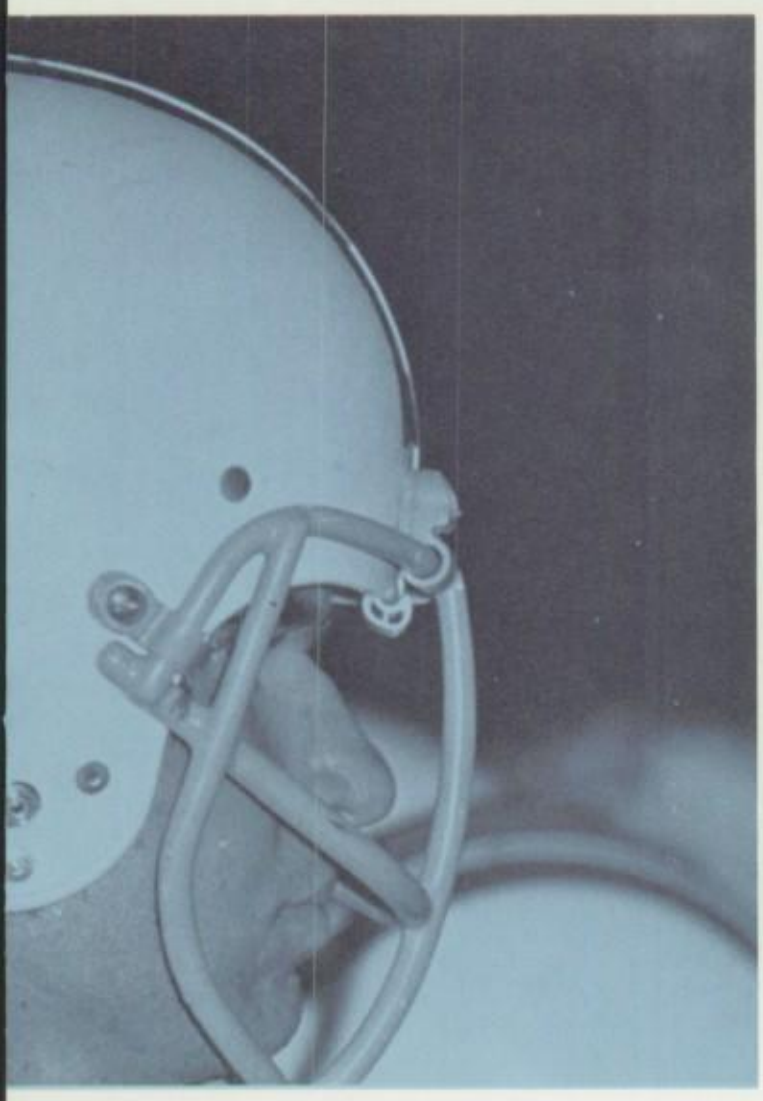
1. Halftime is a special time of precision and enjoyment. One majorette, Gail Turk, shows that hard work really pays off. 2. Even the cheerleaders show the excitement and thrills that are involved in each Knight game. Here Gail Palmer, Martha Early, Laurie Haynie and Kathy Boone generate spirit. 3. Concentration and involvement are evident as Tim Rail looks on with visions of victory. 4. Robert Burrell trudges along followed by several Henderson Cougers.



The football season started only to find itself far behind the long and hard practices. The Shed, 4-lines, and Oklahoma drills were only a few of the many that helped them build the Mighty Johnson team. The Knights were ready for anyone and anything the '74 season would bring them face to face with.

As the first game drew closer, so did the team's family spirit. Not only were they players in blue uniforms on Friday night, but they were a family with "Daddy Wiley" as their guardian.



OOTBALLFOOTBALLFOOTBALLFO

1. Each game began as the Color Guard gave a salute to the American flag. Shown here are Judy Brannon, Sandy Ward, Teresa McNeal, and Patti Tallant. 2. The colorful Flagettes performed gracefully during halftime. Lynn Pinson and Lynn Clark wait anxiously for their chance to perform. 3. The brass section and the Guidon Corps exit the field after a superb halftime performance. 4. Blocking by teammates paves the way for Bobby Stephens to earn extra yards for J.H.S.

1. Captains Mitch Ryder and Mike Green await toss of the coin before the Franklin County game. 2. Robert Abercrombie, Jim Todd, and other Mighty Knights help their teammates by strong sideline support. 3. Fans galore provide extra sparks to the J.H.S. game. 4. Pete Moore, Steve Sosebee, and Andy Mobley show true knight spirit as the men on the field show their stuff.

One who wins is One who thinks he can. And the Knights knew their strength as they opened the season by defeating AAA Cherokee 19-0. The Knights had proved to everyone they were out to win and they did! The next week with 21 seconds left in the game, THE RED WAS DEAD!!! Johnson High defeated Gainesville 10-7. This did it! Big Blue was number 1 and Gainesville had to accept it.

The season went slow for awhile, after that, with many hard losses. Three AAA games were lost by 1 point each. The score will always tell who won by points, but the fans will always know the heart of every player was in each game and Big Blue was a Winner! There is PRIDE in the Knights!!!!

The season was ending, and Johnson had two more home games to prove the "Blue Machine" was the best. Briarcliff came and went, only to find themselves stopped as Johnson won 37-30.

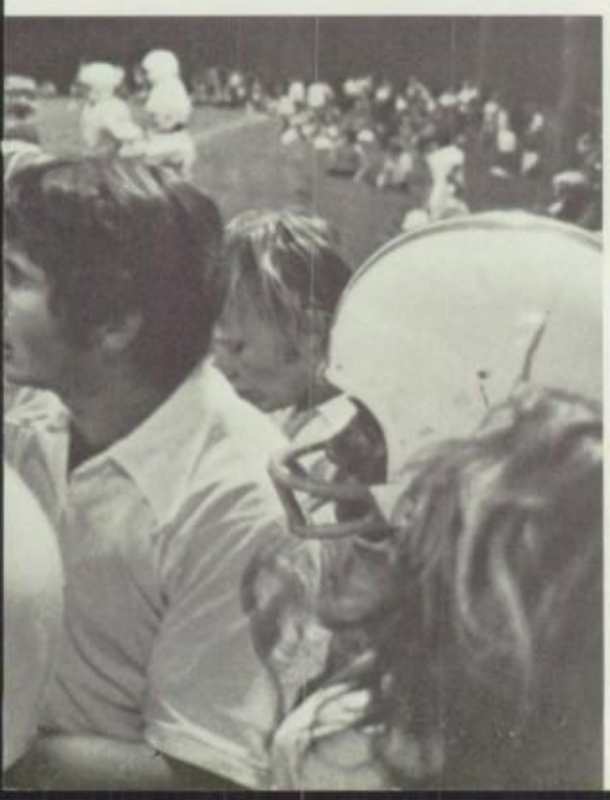
1. Drum Major, C. V. Smith, proudly leads the Pride of Lanierland into all the games. 2. The '74 Homecoming game began with a boom as the mighty Knights roared onto the field. 3. The Flagettes perform "Peacherine Rag" as the band provides the Ragtime music. 4. Coach Rocky Coile gives the team a spirited talk on the midst of a great victory. 5. Junior Stan Smith realizes what Knight Pride really is during the Tucker game.



There was only 1 game left, and the season would be over. The band was playing, and the cheerleaders were yelling. As the Knights came on the field, you could see the eyes of the Franklin County players. They knew they were up against the wrong team. The Knights "Did 'em a job," Johnson 36; Franklin 7.

It was a great season. The games were close, and the tension was unbearable at times. There were hard breaks, and the time ran out too often. There were no-playoffs, but there were great victories. No matter what, in the heart of every true Knight, Johnson High is the BEST!!!

1. Cherokee Indians were scalped by the Knights powerful drive. 2. Coach Mickey Byrd listens to the defensive strategy. 3. Calvin Nicely totals a Tucker Tiger. 4. Crowds expect great things from their team.

1. Amy Pass plays DEFENSE — the name of the game. 2. Fans rock the gym saying, "Fight, Knights, Fight!" 3. "Hot" Laine McGehee puts it up for one as other Lady Knights are ready. 4. Strong defense is shown by Tammy Carpenter as she guards her man.

The Lady Knights rolled through the season with an 18-4 record. Working all year long, each girl went through the drills, every minute of the day in her mind. "The Lady Knights would build for Victory."

"Practice, Practice, Practice," this seems to be Coach Parker's motto. "Hustle," "'At a babe," "Come on you Pansy," "Get the shooter," "Pride," "Dedication" — All these sayings are familiar to the Lady Knights.

Hard work is what it takes and that's what they gave. They put basketball first — true dedication! The season was good. Sure we were down a few times, but at the end the Ladies came out on top.

But it had just begun at the close of the season. Our Lady Knights are winners!

Defense was the name of the game. They hustled, they did their best, they were #1 KNIGHTS.

We had what we needed: tallness, quickness, good ballplayers — good men! And most of all we had SPIRIT!

Our men worked hard and played their best. They were proud of Johnson High School, just as we were PROUD OF THEM.

STUDENT COUNCIL MOVES INTO ACTION

With each new school year at Johnson High, we, as the students, teachers, and staff, encounter numerous problems. And, of course, someone must seek to solve these for the betterment of learning conditions. This group is known as the Student Council.

This year it is felt that we have the most able and willing Council we have ever had. It is probable that this year's Council will leave a good mark behind which everyone will look upon with admiration.

In its entirety, the Student Council is a group of 20, including officers, who have been elected by the student body to represent the students in the proceedings, involved in seeking out problems which occur, and finding solutions to these.

By the end of this school year a number of problems will have been solved through the involvement of the Council. For instance, a phone for student use has been installed and a batting cage is being purchased by the Council and donated to the baseball team. The Council also cooperated with Mr. Dishman in developing the method of taking quarterly exams used throughout the year.

This year several successful dances have been sponsored or co-sponsored by the Student Council, including one outdoor dance which went over very well. The annual Sweetheart Dance was held Friday, February 7 at the GJC Student Center. Perhaps the most interesting dance planned this spring was the annual "Greaser Dance".

Most importantly, each member of the Council is your representative for the purpose of expressing the general opinion of the Student body.

Love,
Monterey

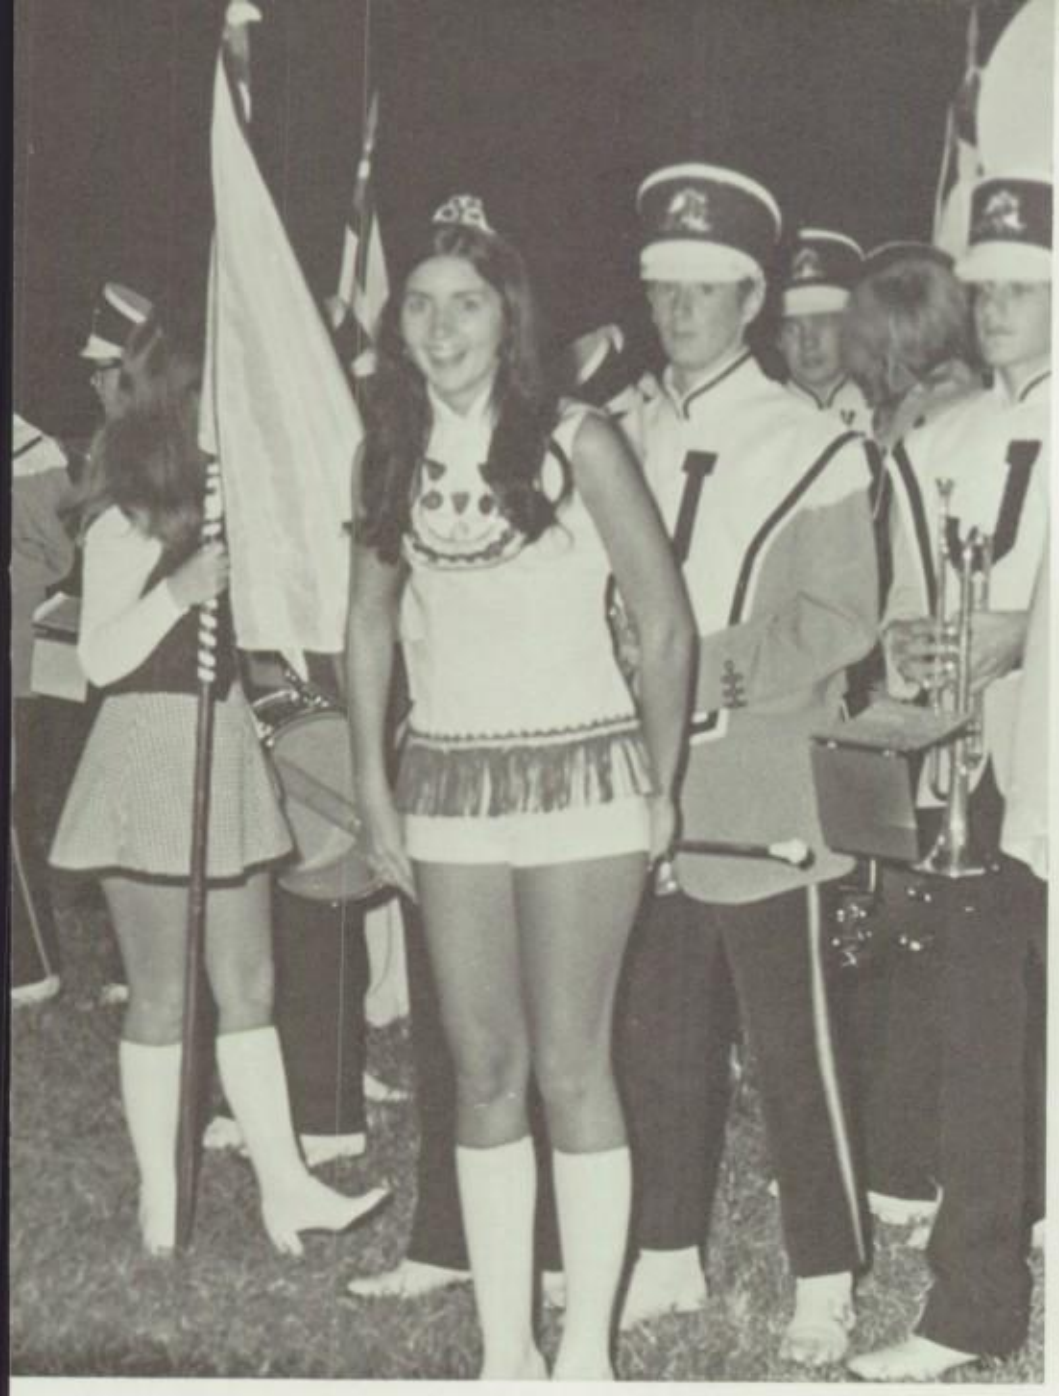
In more ways than one, the JHS Marching Band reached new peaks in halftime performances. Made up of over 100 members, the Marching Band put its rival bands to shame in both size and the fantastic sound they produced. All this was no accident for the band attended a marching camp for an entire week before school started, practicing an average of 10-12 hours per day and it sure paid off!



PRIDE OF LANIERLAND

This year marked a first, in every halftime show, the American flag was presented by the Color Guard. The band felt that as we moved toward the nation's bicentennial it would be appropriate to recognize our flag and so the Johnson High Band followed the flag presented by the Color Guard, in each halftime performance.

The JHS Flagettes gave their best efforts and ability to make 1974 the greatest year ever. The corps consists of seventeen girls who work together for precision, perfection, and fun. Tryouts are held each year and they attend camp each summer. They have won awards, trophies, and superior and excellent ratings at the Solo-Ensemble Festival which they attend in the Spring. The Flagettes were led by Janice Bagwell, captain; Vicki London, co-captain.

The Majorettes are a corp, that consists of six girls, who are active in the community, parades, and add that special touch to each halftime show. Tryouts are held in the Spring and camp in the summer. Dedication and hard work go into each show, and in return, enjoyment, pride, and excitement comes forth. The corp was led by Tammy Carpenter, captain; and Debbie Tanner, co-captain.

Sponsoring each group was Miss Beverly Sisk.

The Concert Band performs in concerts, participates in the 9th District Music Festival and other activities. The band is making plans to tour Mexico in the Spring. Mr. Ron Evans is the director.

SYMPHONIC BAND

For the first time in its history, the J.H.S. Band was separated into two bands for second and third quarters; the Symphonic Band and the Concert Band. The band will compete in festival competition as well as going on tour in Mexico this spring. SING ALONG AND JOIN OUR SONG

The Johnson High School Concert Choir was originated because of many students' desire to perform quality vocal literature. The Concert Choir, composed of 90 student vocalists, is active in school and community activities and is rapidly gaining popularity around the area as being one of the top high school musical organizations. The choir is a consistent winner of superior ratings in the highest classification at Georgia Music Festivals. Membership in the choir is open to all students who have a desire to sing, and who can pass a simple audition.

In addition to concerts, the choir participates in the annual Christmas Tree Lighting, and this year they performed the "Mass in G" by Franz Schubert, complete with a string ensemble from the University of Georgia.

The Johnson High Knights Team of 1974 was a team that could be characterized by three words: happiness, heartbreak, and PRIDE. The Knights were a family of young men that anyone would be proud to call his family. Through the joys of victory and the sadness of defeat, these young men were always the same, 110% effort every day. The Knights were always looking up with heads high Proud to say "I am a Johnson Knight."

May the SPIRIT of the Johnson Knights spread to all our school and country. This spirit will lead us all to greater things.

This year's team led by five seniors provided everyone with many exciting moments. As students, individuals and as a team there are many qualities possessed by each. Of all the qualities, Pride depicts them all. In their own performance, in the team's results, in the long hours of hard work and preparation, taking pride in what they do is easily visible. The winning attitude of this team cannot be questioned.

Very proud indeed to represent Johnson High as The "Lady Knights."

The Johnson Knights of 1974-1975 were truly a group of young men to be proud of. Never playing a smaller team, they always battled to the finish. A team that knew what President Nixon meant when he said, "one never knows how it feels to be on a mountain top, if he has never been in the valley." The "Knights of the Roundball" always had that much talked about, "Knight Spirit". We were honored to have had them a part of us.

Our "Knights of the Roundball" were led by coaches Gerald Davidson and Larry Maddox. They led our boys through hard times and victories.

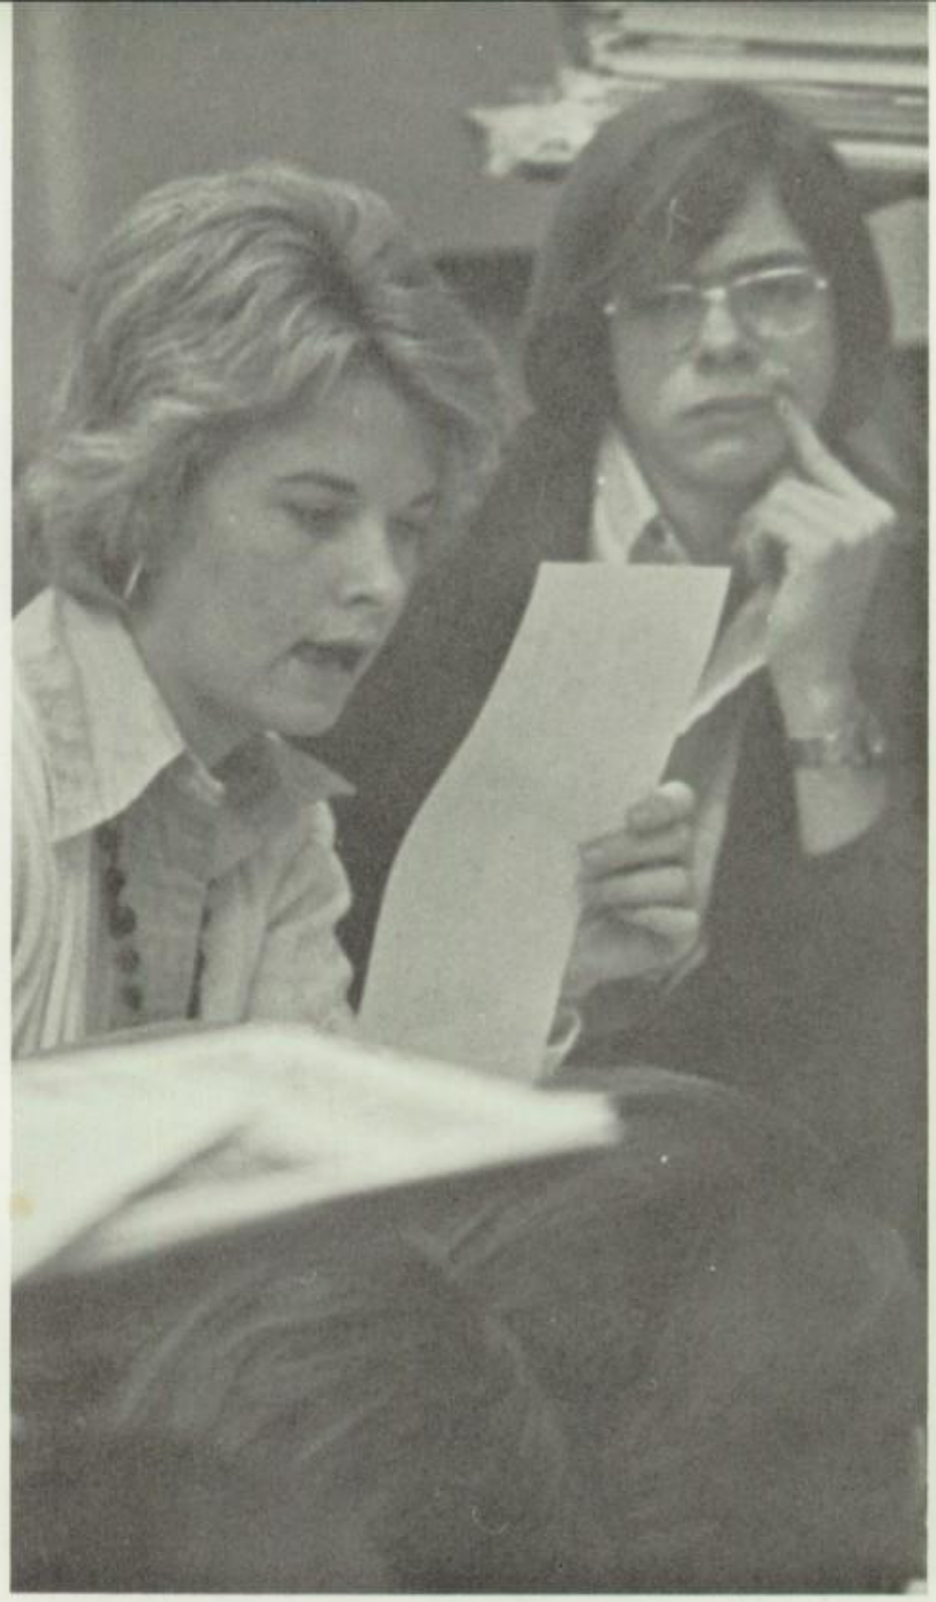
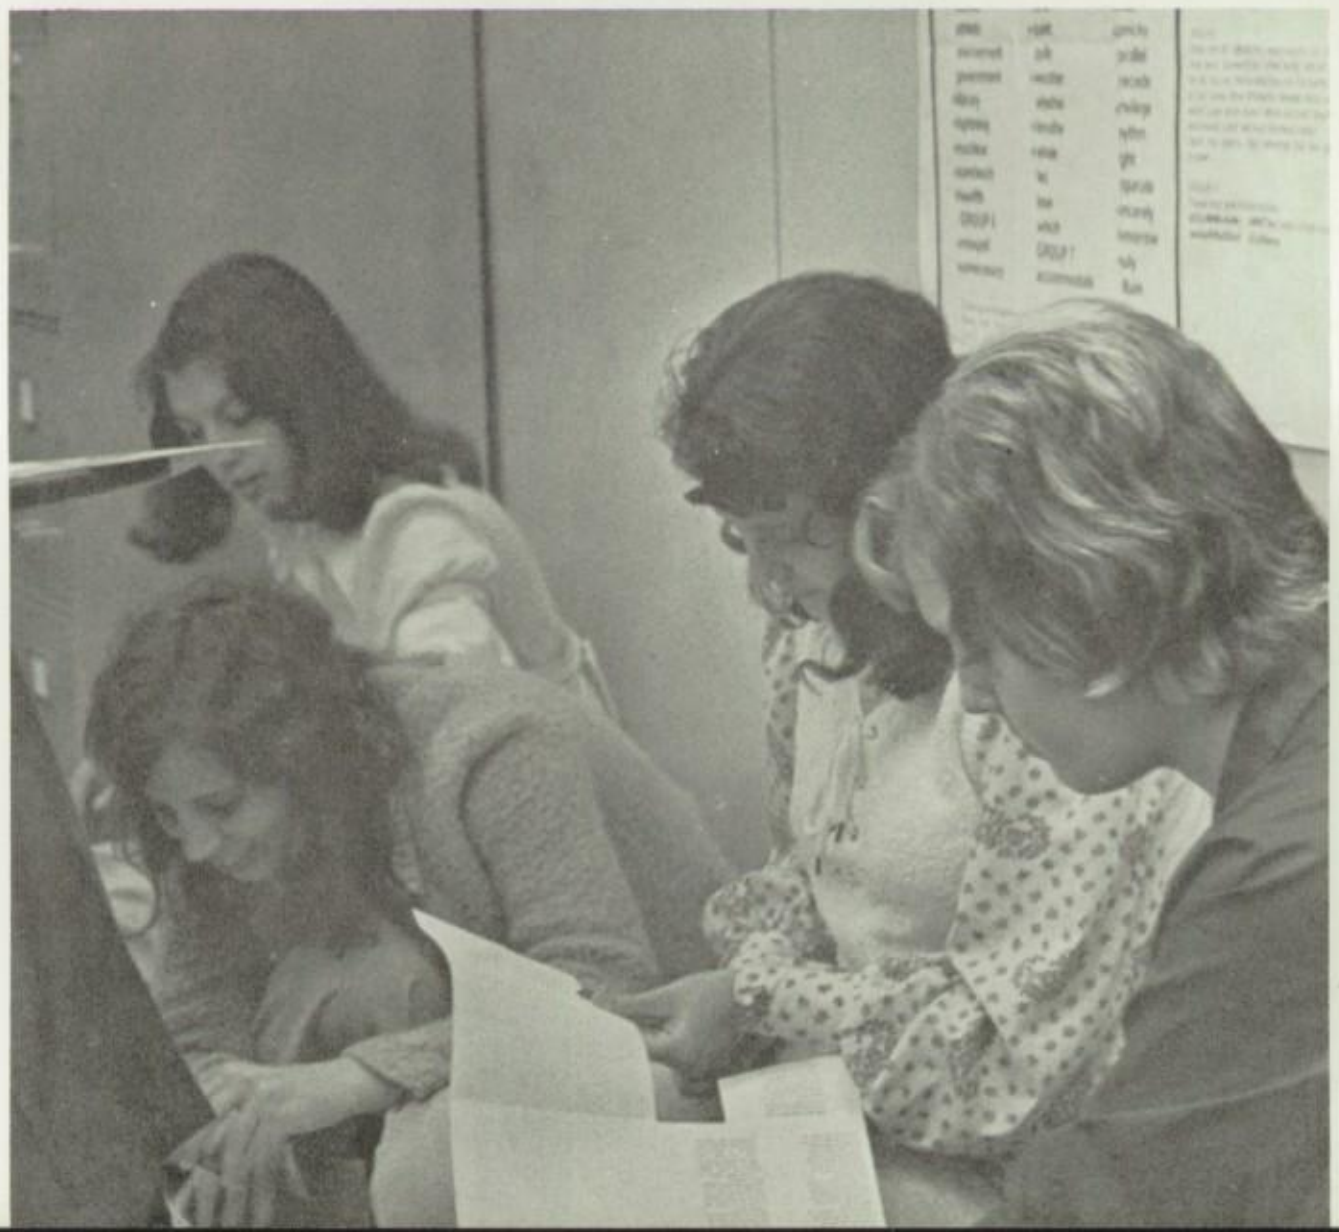
PROUD VARSITY KNIGHTS

"What? My story is due tomorrow — but Mrs. Hall, I can't even find Coach Wiley for the interview!" . . . "Rita, will you please type this story — it's due in five minutes!" "What can I do with this layout page, Kathy — it's got a big hole in it! Can we put a picture of the student body in there?" "All right gang, let's get out there and really SELL the paper, mainly because it's great and secondly, we've got to pay our bills!"

A typical day on The Blue Print is filled with anxiety, tension and even fun. We produce at least two issues a quarter, and we do just about everything from beginning to end — writing the stories, typing, layouts, and headlines and thanks to the Graphic Arts Department — we can print part of it! This is one place where the students can really take charge, especially Dana Larmon, our Editor, Jeri McWard, Assistant Editor, Kathy Roberts, Feature Editor, Kathy Norris and Darrell Wiley, Sports Editors and Kathy Peck, our Business Manager.





EXTRA, EXTRA! READ ALL ABOUT IT

SPIRIT RISES AGAIN

Have you ever, on a cold rainy day, felt depressed? Have you felt like the whole world was against you, or you just failed a test, or maybe you lost your best friend? Have you ever had days like these? Have you ever went and picked up your yearbook and began thumbing through it, and read what people wrote? After a while all the good times you had come to mind, and you laugh at the time you spilt your coke in your date's lap, or forgot your shoe before a game. All the secrets and hit songs play a tune in your heart. You feel the disappointments again, but see how everything worked out for the best in the end. In the mist of all the best wishes and good lucks your heart seems lighter, the rain stops and the sun comes out. Suddenly, filled with new determination and confidence, you go on knowing you can do it,

If so then we've done our job.

KNIGHTS ON THE MOVE

As our year went on, one could notice Johnson moving. Not only forward in size, but in ideals, admiration, respect, love and most of all PRIDE. We became a proud group. One that only the best could be. We did not allow anything second rate exist, it had to be the best. Everyone started pulling together. We were one big team striving, pushing for one goal . . . to make Johnson number 1!!!!
